OFFICE MANAGER STEALS $346,000.00 FROM RIVERSIDE POLICE OFFICERS' ASSOCIATION

Riverside, CA – Members of the Riverside Police Department Economic Crimes Unit completed a three year investigation into the theft of funds from the Riverside Police Officers' Association (RPOA). The RPOA represents over 360 officers from the Riverside Police Department. In February 2012, RPOA board members discovered suspicious payments made on the association's credit card accounts. A specific payment of $11,000.00 was made to the Orange County Department of Child Support Services in September 2011. The investigation revealed that a child support payment was made for Jamar Moore, 45 years old, from Moreno Valley. Moore is the husband of RPOA's former office manager Alis Archibeque, 42 years old, from Moreno Valley. Archibeque was employed with the RPOA from April 2006 until about March 2012.

A forensic audit was conducted on several RPOA bank accounts. The audit included over 7,000 line items of alleged theft and unauthorized purchases made by Archibeque starting in about May 2007 and continuing until about March 2012. Specific unauthorized purchases were made with RPOA credit cards. A search warrant of Archibeque's Moreno Valley home was conducted in November 2012 and several items purchased with the RPOA credit cards were located in the home.

The completion of the forensic audit revealed that Archibeque had purchased her personal groceries, gas, utility bills, and home appliances with the RPOA credit cards. She also made car payments and insurance payments for her 2002 Chevrolet Corvette using RPOA funds. Archibeque funded extravagant vacations to Italy and on Disney Cruise Lines. She purchased tickets to several concerts and rented limousines to take her friends and family with her. She acquired tattoos and jewelry, all using the RPOA credit cards. The total amount of unauthorized charges detailed in the audit was about $346,000.00.

Members of the Inland Regional Apprehension Team (IRAT) and RPD Economic Crimes Unit located and arrested Archibeque on February 7, 2015 at a restaurant in Redlands. Archibeque was booked at Riverside County Jail for two counts of Grand Theft and an enhancement for theft exceeding $100,000.00. Archibeque's bail is set at $346,000.00.
